KARON BRADLEY

AFTERSHOCKS HEAD COACH & CO-OWNER | KARON BRADLEY

- ▶ Played two seasons at Marquette and was a freshman on the Golden Eagles' 2003 Final Four team that included future NBA All-Star Dwayne Wade.
- ▶ Transferred to WSU in 2004 and played his last two seasons for Mark Turgeon (2005-07).
- ▶ Named to the Missouri Valley Conference All-Newcomer team in 2005-06.
- ▶ Helped the 2006 Shockers win WSU's first conference regular season title in 23 years and snap an 18-year NCAA Tournament drought.
- ▶ Averaged 9.0 points in 23.3 minutes during the seventh-seeded Shockers' Sweet 16 run.
- ▶ Hit the go-ahead jumper in a second-round upset of No. 2 Tennessee and scored 13 against fellow Cinderella, George Mason in the Regional Semifinal.
- ▶ 2007 Shafer Dart Most Inspirational Player.
- ▶ Currently resides in the Houston area.

AFTERSHOCKS ROSTER | FAST FACTS

- ▶ All 10 players listed on the roster earned all-conference honors as Shockers. Six of them made the first team at least once.
- ▶ Six Marshall Era Shockers have played in the NBA, including AfterShocks Cleanthony Early and Toure' Murry.
- ▶ In 2014, Early became WSU's first NBA Draft Pick since 1987 (2nd Round, No. 34 Overall, New York Knicks).
- ▶ Led by Murry (1,539) and J.T. Durley (1,327), the roster features six 1,000-point scorers.
- ▶ Shaquille Morris and Garrett Stutz are on a short list of five Shockers with 1,000 points, 500 rebounds and 100 career blocks.
- ▶ The 10 AfterShocks bring an average of five years pro experience at an average age of 28.
- ▶ This group played a large in role in making Wichita State one of the decade's most-successful programs. Over an eight-year span from 2010-11 to 2017-18, the Shockers posted Division I's third-highest winning percentage (.820; 233-51).
